Space Management

Workplace Analytics

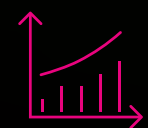

Most Workplace Decisions Are Made Without the Full Picture

Fragmented, Incomplete, Misleading Data

Disconnected Systems

Data sits across CAFM, sensors, bookings and spreadsheets with no single source of truth.

Misleading Metrics

Utilisation shows “how much” space is used - but not how, when or why.

Assumption-Based Decisions

Changes to space, policy or design are made without reliable evidence.

Lack of Visibility

No clear view of how space is used across your portfolio.

Accordant Brings Everything Together

Visualise Your Workplace

Interactive floor plans show how space is actually used. See patterns across teams, space types and time of day.

Connect Your Data

Bring together occupancy, booking, sensor and people data. Create a single, reliable source of truth.

Plan and Adapt

Model changes, manage moves and test scenarios. Make informed decisions before making physical changes.

Make Better Decisions

Clear insights to optimise space, improve experience and reduce costs. Move from reactive to proactive planning.

The Impact

Underused or overcrowded spaces

Poor workplace experience

Inefficient portfolios

50% utilisation doesn't mean what you think it means.

No silos. No guesswork. No delays.

Real workplace insight Captured in the real world

Go Beyond Static Data

Collect utilisation metrics to explain gaps in other data sources like sensors, access control or WiFi. Trusted by companies and government world-wide.

How It Works

Simply walk a floor to observe "normal" occupancy events plus the ones other tech ignores.

Key Benefits

Real usage insight

Identify the missing occupancy data you need for a complete picture, not just desks, doors and meeting rooms.

No additional Hardware

Simply set up on a tablet (or smartphone) and start measuring.

Hybrid Analysis

Which parts of your hybrid spaces are underperforming and why.

Fast to Deploy

Real results in a matter of days.
